1. GENERAL INFORMATION

1.6 Host City Budapest

Budapest – Pearl of the Danube

Where history meets elegance and vibrant modern life, Budapest stands as one of Europe's most captivating capitals. The majestic Hungarian Parliament reflects in the waters of the Danube, while the iconic Chain Bridge connects the timeless beauty of Buda and Pest. From the panoramic terraces of Fisherman's Bastion and the grandeur of Buda Castle to the spiritual heart of St. Stephen's

Basilica, every corner tells a story of heritage and pride.

By day, the city enchants with breathtaking architecture and sweeping river views. By evening, it transforms into a lively destination of illuminated bridges, riverside restaurants, atmospheric ruin pubs, and world-famous thermal baths. Budapest is not just a city to visit — it is an experience to remember.

Eger is a charming baroque town located about 140 km from Budapest, renowned for its historical significance and vibrant cultural atmosphere. Eger Castle, played a key role in defending Hungary against Ottoman invasion in the 16th century. Today, visitors can explore its historic walls, museums, and panoramic viewpoints. Eger is also celebrated for its thermal baths and its world-famous red wine, “Egri Bikavér” making it an ideal cultural and gastronomic destination.

The Danube Bend is one of Hungary's most scenic natural regions, located just 50 km north of Budapest. Here, the river curves dramatically between forested hills, creating breathtaking landscapes. The area includes historic towns such as Visegrád, Esztergom, and Szentendre, each rich in culture and heritage. Visitors can enjoy panoramic viewpoints, medieval castles, riverside walks, and authentic Hungarian charm in a peaceful natural setting.

Lake Balaton, often referred to as the “Hungarian Sea,” is the largest lake in Central Europe and one of Hungary's top holiday destinations. Located approximately 120 km from Budapest, it offers beautiful beaches, charming lakeside towns, and excellent sailing conditions. The northern shore is famous for vineyards and scenic hills, while the southern shore is ideal for families and relaxation. It is a perfect escape for nature lovers and those seeking leisure and recreation.
